- (b) Your contract with us in respect of each Service (the Contract) is made up of:
 - (i) if You are a Prepaid Customer, any terms and conditions provided to You before, or agreed to at the time, You activate your Service;
 - (ii) if You are a Post Paid Plan customer, the terms You agreed to in your Application, whether made on paper, online or over the phone;
 - (iii) the Service Description for the relevant Service;
 - (iv) the Crazy John's Fair Use Policy; and
 - (v) these General Terms.
- (c) Any inconsistency between the documents referred to in paragraph (b) will be resolved in favour of the document that is listed first.
- (d) These General Terms, together with the Service Descriptions, and Fair Use Policy, constitute our Standard Form of Agreement for the purposes of the Act. Our Standard Form of Agreement is legally binding on You and us to the extent that it relates to your Service unless we have agreed to different terms.
- (e) Certain words used in your Contract are given a specific meaning in the dictionary located in Schedule 1 of these General Terms.
- (f) The terms of Your contract may be varied by the terms and conditions of any Special Promotions that apply to Your Service, and of which You are told in accordance with clause 1.10 of these General Terms.

1.2 Customer Contact Centre

We will provide You with a Customer Contact Centre, which can be contacted on 1300 303 646, between 8am and 9pm ESDT Monday to Friday, between 8am and 7pm ESDT Saturday and between 8am and 6pm ESDT Sunday. You are also able to submit queries to us online by using our self care portal, which You can gain access to by visiting our website at www.crazyjohns.com.au/myaccount.

1.3 How long does this Contract last?

- (a) This Contract between You and us commences:
 - (i) if You are a Prepaid Customer, when You activate your Prepaid Mobile Service; or
 - (ii) if You are a Post Paid Plan Customer, when You complete your Application, either on paper, online or over the telephone with our Customer Contact Centre.

- (b) Your Contract continues until the Service is cancelled in accordance with this Contract or we notify You that we have refused your Application for the Service.
 - (c) If applicable to your Service, your Commitment Period, and your first Billing Period, commence on the date on which we first begin supplying You with Services.

1.4 How can we make a minor change to this Contract?

- (a) We can make a change to this Contract without notifying You if we reasonably consider that the change benefits You or has a neutral impact on You.
- (b) We can also make a change to this Contract if we reasonably consider that the change has a minor detrimental impact on You. If we do not give You prior Personal Notice of such a change in advance, we will place a notice describing that change in a national newspaper prior to making the change and will give You Personal Notice of the change within 4 months of the change taking effect.
- (c) If You can demonstrate that the change has more than a minor detrimental impact on You and is not a change described in clause 1.6 of these General Terms, You may cancel the Service on a No Cost Basis.

1.5 Specific situations in which we can change this Contract

- (a) We can vary fees charged for administration services (for example billing or credit card processing), or introduce new fees for administration services, provided we give You Personal Notice of the change. At that time we may offer You an alternative at no additional cost. You may cancel the Service on a No Cost Basis if we do not offer You an alternative at no additional cost.
- (b) We may increase the charges for GPRS Data or Premium Services that we provide to You if a third party, on whom we rely to provide the Service, increases the cost of those services. Where You have accessed GPRS Data or Premium Services in the last 6 months, we may only increase these charges if:
 - (i) we give You prior notice of the change; and
 - (ii) we allow You to choose not to use those services without incurring additional charges.
- (c) We can make a change to the Contract that results from an amendment to our arrangements with our Suppliers provided we:
 - (i) give You prior Personal Notice of the change; and
 - (ii) allow You to cancel the Service within 42 days of that notice on a No Cost Basis.
- (d) We can make a change to the Contract without telling You, if:
 - (i) we vary our charges for international services and International Roaming services (these charges are available on our website); and
 - (ii) we vary our charges, or introduce new charges, relating to a new or varied tax.

1.6 How can we make an urgent change to this Contract

From time to time we may need to make urgent changes to this Contract (e.g. where the change is required by law or to maintain security or for technical reasons). In these situations we will try to give You as much notice as we reasonably can.

1.7 How can we make other changes to this Contract?

- (a) For Fixed-Period Contracts, we can only make other changes if we:
 - (i) are required to by law; or
 - (ii) provide You with Personal Notice of the change we are proposing (including details of how it would affect You) at least 21 days before the change takes effect and give You at least 42 days notice from the date on which the change takes effect in which to cancel the Service on a No Cost Basis.
- (b) We can make other changes to Contracts that are not Fixed-Period Contracts, by giving You at least 30 days Personal Notice of the change.

Aside from the things specifically provided for in the Service Description for your Service as things which You can change, You cannot make any changes to this Contract without first obtaining our written consent.

1.9 What will happen at the end of the Commitment Period for a Fixed-Period Contract?

- (a) If neither You nor we cancel the Service at the end of the Commitment Period, we will continue to supply the Service to You until either we give You 30 days notice of its termination, or You notify us that you wish to cancel the Service. The Contract will not be a Fixed-Period Contract after the end of the Commitment Period.
- (b) If You do not wish to continue to use the Service after the end of the Commitment Period, You must cancel the Service in accordance with clause 9 of these General Terms by the end of the Commitment Period.
- (c) If we do not wish to continue providing the Service to You at the end of the Commitment Period, or if we wish to change the terms of the Contract, including charges for supply, then we will inform You of this at least 30 days before the end of the Commitment Period.

1.10 Special Promotions

- (a) From time to time we may, in our discretion, offer Special Promotions in connection with any of our Services.
- (b) We will tell You about any Special Promotions that apply to your Service. We will also give you a copy of the terms and conditions applicable to that Special Promotion. You must comply with those terms and conditions to be eligible to receive the Special Promotion.

- (c) You will be bound by and entitled to the benefit of a Special Promotion which was provided to You at the time of making Your Application (in which case You will be bound to comply with its terms). If we tell You about the terms of a Special Promotion for a particular Service after we start providing that Service to You then You may choose whether to receive the benefit of that Special Promotion. If You choose to receive the benefit of that Special Promotion You will be bound to comply with its terms. If You don't choose to receive the benefit of the Special Promotion You will not be bound to comply with its terms.

- (a) If You use a handset with your Service that was not provided to You by us, it must be compatible with the Crazy John's Network, the Service and the Plan You have selected. A list of compatible handsets is available on our website at www.crazyjohns.com.au.
- (b) If other equipment is needed for You to access the Service, it will be listed on our website at www.crazyjohns.com.au.

4.2 Who owns the equipment?

- (a) To use the Service, You may need to have on loan our equipment. Where we provide any equipment to You on loan, ownership or title in that equipment does not transfer to You when You use the Service. You are holding our equipment on our behalf for the duration of this Contract. You must take reasonable care of our equipment while it is lent to You and will be responsible for any loss or damage excluding fair wear and tear.
- (b) If your Application or the Service Description for the Service states that we will sell equipment to You then title in that equipment (including any Handset) transfers to You when You receive that equipment from us. Regardless of when ownership transfers, you will be liable for all outstanding payments for that equipment as a debt due to us from the time you agree to purchase that equipment from us.

4.3 Handset locking

- (a) If we provide You with your Handset, we may lock it so that it may only be used on the Crazy John's Network. If we lock your Handset, You will not be able to make any calls, send SMS messages or access any services on another Network, except to make emergency 000 and 112 calls.

- (b) If we have locked your Handset to the Crazy John's Network, you will need to unlock the Handset for use on another telecommunications provider's Network. This may be achieved by entering an unlock code that allows the Handset to be unlocked. To obtain the relevant code for your Handset, and to obtain further unlocking instructions, call the Customer Contact Centre. We may charge You a fee for providing You with your unlock code.

4.4 Lost, stolen and damaged equipment

- (a) You will be responsible for any outstanding payments for equipment (including any Handset) that You purchase from us, even where it is lost, stolen or damaged.
- (b) If You insure your Handset with us, You may make an insurance claim on the terms of that insurance if your Handset is lost, stolen or damaged.
- (c) If your Handset is lost or stolen, You must notify us as soon as possible. You will be responsible for all charges incurred in respect of the Service until You notify us that the Handset has been lost or stolen.
- (d) Information about security tools that are available in relation to your Service and assistance regarding their use can be obtained from our Customer Contact Centre.

4.5 Compliant equipment

- (a) You must not connect to the Crazy John's Network, or the Network of one of our Suppliers, equipment that does not comply with the relevant technical standards. These standards are available on the website of the Australian Communications and Media Authority.
- (b) You must tell us about any changes to your equipment that affect our ability to provide the Service to You.

4.6 Viruses

We are not responsible for any harm You suffer or for any loss or damage You incur as a result of a virus or other manipulative program infiltrating your Handset, even if that virus or program was transmitted via the Crazy John's Network. You will still be responsible for all fees and charges for the use of your Service, even where that use was caused by such virus or program, unless and until You ask us to Suspend your Service, and it is suspended.

5. International Mobile Equipment Identity Number

5.1 IMEI Blocking

- (a) You must promptly notify us if your Handset is lost or stolen, quoting that Handset's International Mobile Equipment Identity (IMEI) number. We will block that handset from use on the Crazy John's Network as soon as practicable after you tell us the IMEI number. We will also pass this IMEI number to other service providers for blocking use on their Networks.

- (b) Our ability to block promptly the use of your Handset on another service provider's Network requires the co-operation of those service providers, over which Crazy John's has no control.
- (c) You agree that IMEI blocking is subject to technical limitations and that blocking may not take effect for a period of time after You request blocking to be applied.

5.2 When may we activate IMEI Blocking?

We may activate IMEI blocking on your Handset if we reasonably believe that the Handset is lost or stolen. We may choose to exercise our right under this clause in circumstances where You are unaware that your Handset is lost or stolen.

5.3 How do I reactivate my Handset?

- (a) To reactivate a Handset which has been locked from use on the Crazy John's Network, You must contact the Customer Contact Centre and request that:
 - (i) incoming and outgoing calls be unbarred;
 - (ii) deactivation of IMEI blocking; or
 - (iii) the Service to be reactivated.
- (b) You may be required to pay a Reconnection Fee as specified in the Service Description for your Service in these circumstances.

6. Charges

6.1 What are the charges for using the Service?

- (a) Please refer to the relevant Service Description for detailed information on the charges for the Service You have selected. The charges listed in the Service Description are inclusive of Goods and Services Tax. Some of our charges must be paid in advance.
- (b) You agree to pay all charges incurred in respect of the Service, even if they were not incurred by You personally.
- (c) You agree to pay for the maintenance and repair of any equipment that You own to use the Service, except where the damage was caused by us, or our employees, agents or contractors, subject to any manufacturers' warranties that may apply to the equipment.
- (d) We can round charges up or down to the nearest whole cent. If You pay a bill by cash, we may round the amount payable by You to the nearest multiple of 5 cents.
- (e) If we owe You an amount, we can deduct that amount from any amounts that You owe to us.

6.2 Types of charges including administration charges and other charges

- (a) In addition to the costs You incur in the normal use of the Service, we can charge You for administration and other similar charges. These will only be a genuine estimate of the costs incurred by us. Examples of these types of costs include an Early Termination Charge, a Late Payment Fee, a Payment Dishonour Fee, a Payment Processing Fee and a Reconnection Fee. These charges are set out in the Service Description for that Service.
- (b) You will be liable to pay the Payment Dishonour Fee if You pay by cheque and the cheque is dishonoured or You pay by direct debit and there are insufficient funds in your account.
- (c) You may be liable to pay a Late Payment Fee if You do not pay a bill in full by its due date.
- (d) You may be liable to pay an Early Termination Charge if your Service is disconnected or cancelled because You have not complied with the terms of your Contract or You have terminated a Fixed-Period Contract at your convenience as described in clause 9.2 of these General Terms.
- (e) You may be liable to pay a Reconnection Fee if You request us to reconnect your service after we have Suspended, disconnected or cancelled your service.

6.3 Charges for services provided by other parties

If You use our Service to access a service provided by someone else, and we are charged for that other service, You must pay us for that other service.

7. Payments

7.1 Prepaid Plans

- (a) If You are on a Prepaid Plan You will have to make one or more Pre-Payments. Those Payments give rise to credits on your Prepaid Service account. We will apply your credits against the charges that You incur in using the Service.
- (b) You will not be able to use credits arising from a Pre-Payment until we have received and processed your payment. The time required for us to receive and process your payment may vary depending on the payment method that You use.

7.2 When else will You be required to make a Pre-Payment?

- (a) If You are not on a Prepaid Plan, You may still be required, in some circumstances, to pay in advance the estimated cost of using your Service for the Billing Period.
- (b) We may ask You to make a Pre-Payment if You have no credit record or history of residence in Australia, or if we have evidence that You have failed to pay outstanding charges on a previous account in your name for telecommunication services. In these circumstances, You will only be required to make a Pre-Payment for the estimated charges of one Billing Period at one time. Our requirement for Pre-Payment will cease after You have paid the charges and expenses on your bill for 6 consecutive Billing Periods or 12 months, whichever is the lesser period.

- (c) The amount of any Pre-Payment is set out in your Application and/or the Service Description for the Service, or otherwise notified to You.
- (d) Additionally, we may determine a maximum amount of credit that You are able to hold with us. If, as a result of any arrangements You make with us, the amount You owe us exceeds that limit, we may require You to pay us promptly the difference.
- (e) If You make a Pre-Payment because You have no credit record or history of residence in Australia, or if we have evidence You have previously failed to pay outstanding accounts in your name for telecommunication services, the costs and charges for each Billing Period will be deducted from each Pre-Payment.

7.3 Pre-Payments and variations in charges

If we require You to make a Pre-Payment under clause 7.2 of these General Terms in respect of any charges and subsequently those charges are varied or the Service is cancelled, we will refund You any overpayment and You must pay us any further amount that we require as a result of any increase due to that variation.

7.4 How will we bill You?

- (a) Unless some other arrangement has been specified for the particular Services concerned, we will bill You by providing You with a hardcopy paper bill.
- (b) Our bills for the Service will comply with the Billing Code which requires us to provide timely, accurate and verifiable bills.
- (c) Our bills will contain contact details which You can use to contact us if You have any billing queries.

7.5 What will appear on your bill?

- (a) We will attempt to include all charges that relate to a Billing Period in the bill for that Billing Period. However, this is not always possible and some charges on a bill may relate to other Billing Periods.
- (b) If You have agreed to purchase a Handset from us pursuant to an arrangement whereby You make regular payments over your Commitment Period for that Handset, we will also include on your bill the amount that You have agreed to pay us under that arrangement. This amount will form part of the total amount You are required to pay us for that Billing Period.
- (c) We will not bill You for any charges that are older than 190 days from the date the charge was incurred by You except where we are permitted to do so by the Billing Code.
- (d) If we do not provide You with sufficient information to verify the accuracy of your bill, You may request us to do so.

7.7 What types of payment methods can You use?

- (a) You can pay us by cheque, electronic funds transfer, credit card and such other methods as we notify to You from time to time.

7.8 How can You change your payment method?

- (a) You can change your method of payment at any time by calling us or writing to us. However, You must obtain our consent to change your method of payment if we have required You to pay by direct debit because You have repeatedly failed to pay your bills on time.
- (b) If You elect to cease paying your bills with us by direct debit, or to commence paying our bills by direct debit where we offer that payment method, this election will apply for all bills issued after the date on which your election becomes effective. The election will become effective a reasonable period after the date on which You notify us.

7.9 When must You pay your bills?

You must pay any charges set out on a bill on the date the bill is due for payment.

7.10 What happens if You don't pay your bills?

- (a) We may cancel, Restrict or Suspend your Service if You do not pay a bill by the due date, unless You have entered into a payment arrangement with us.

- (a) If You are unable to pay a bill because of personal hardship, You may contact us and seek to be placed on our hardship recognition and assistance program.
- (b) Examples of personal hardship that we may recognize include where:
 - (i) You, or a person on whom You are financially dependant, become unemployed; or
 - (ii) You, or a person who is financially dependent on You, suffer a serious illness or physical or mental incapacity.

7.12 Unusually High Usage

From time to time, we may (but are not obliged to) contact You to verify any costs or charges incurred which relate to Unusually High Usage of the service. This practice assists in preventing the unauthorised use of the Service and helps to protect both You and us. We do not have any liability for a failure to contact You and You remain liable to pay any charges incurred during a period of Unusually High Usage.

7.13 GST and other taxes

You must pay to us the amount of any GST applicable to a supply we make to You at the prevailing GST rate. You must pay the GST amount without deduction or set-off. We will issue You with a tax invoice for any supply for which GST applies.

8. Complaints and Disputes

8.1 Making complaints

14.2 How we can assign our rights and responsibilities to a third party

- (a) We may novate our rights and obligations under this Contract to one of our Suppliers without your consent, by giving You notice of that novation. You irrevocably appoint us as your authorised agent to execute all documents and to do all acts as are necessary or desirable to give effect to such novation.
- (b) Otherwise, we may assign any of our rights under this Contract to any person without your consent, by giving You notice of that assignment.
- (c) Except as provided in this clause, we cannot assign any of our obligations under this Contract without first obtaining your consent.
